

Illicit Drug Data Report

2007-08

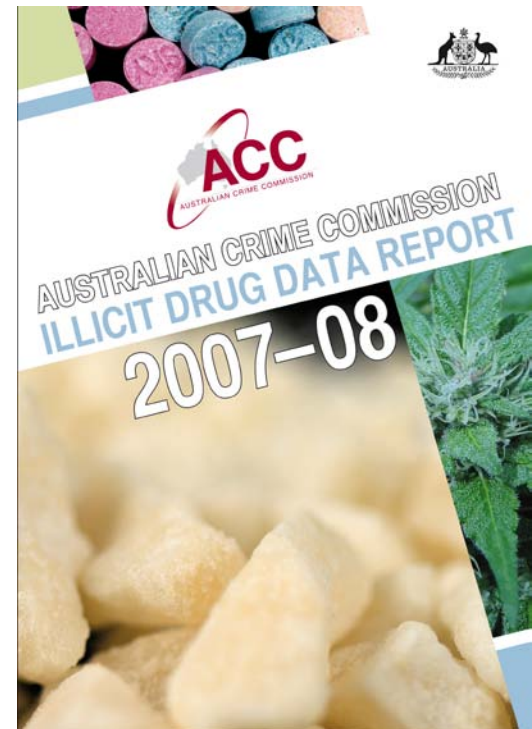

Outline

- The Illicit Drug Data Report (IDDR)
- Enhancements to the IDDR
- 2007-08 IDDR Findings
- IDDR Snapshot

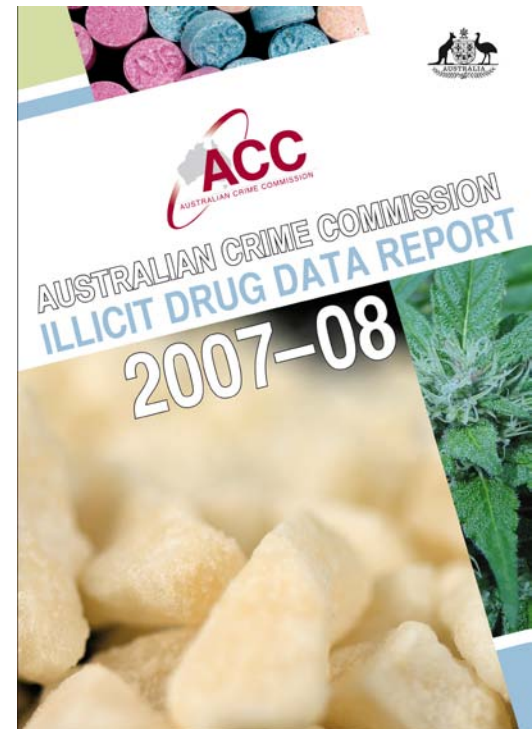

IDDR Overview

- Provides a national picture of the illicit drug market
- Data obtained from partner agencies
- Includes arrest, seizure, purity and price data

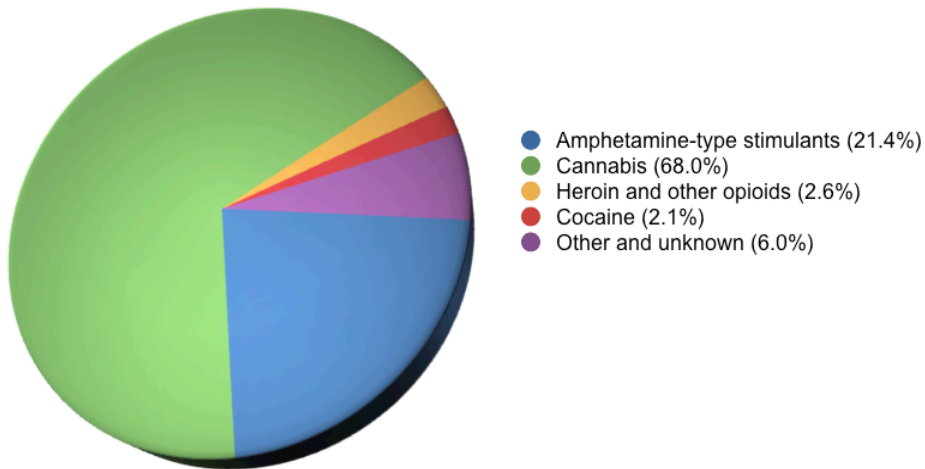

Enhancements to the 2007-08 IDDR

- Inclusion of an Executive Summary
- Inclusion of additional arrest, purity and production charts
- Additional clandestine laboratory data
- Inclusion of AFP heroin profiling data
- Re-introduction of the Initiatives chapter

2007-08 National Seizures

Total Number of 2007-08 Seizures by Drug Type

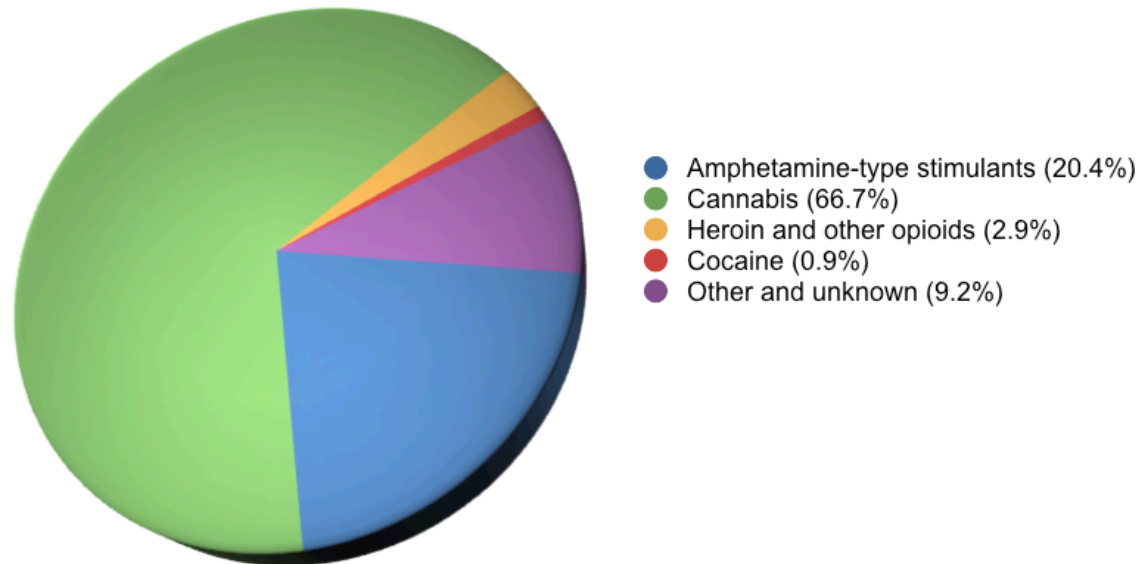

Total Weight of 2007-08 Seizures by Drug Type

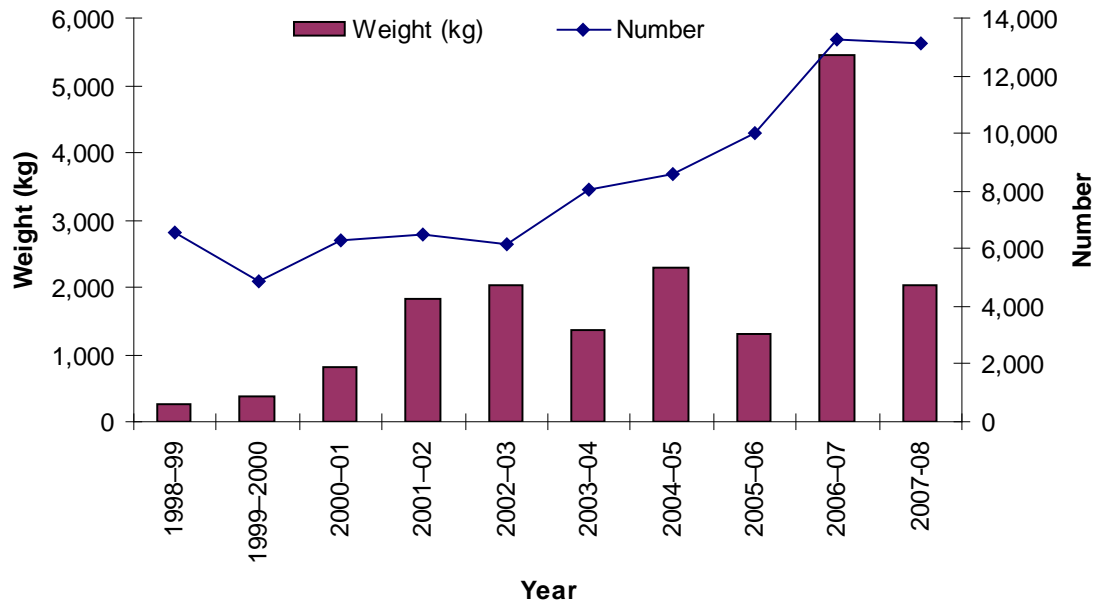

2007-08 National Arrests

Total Number of Arrests in 2007–08 by Drug Type

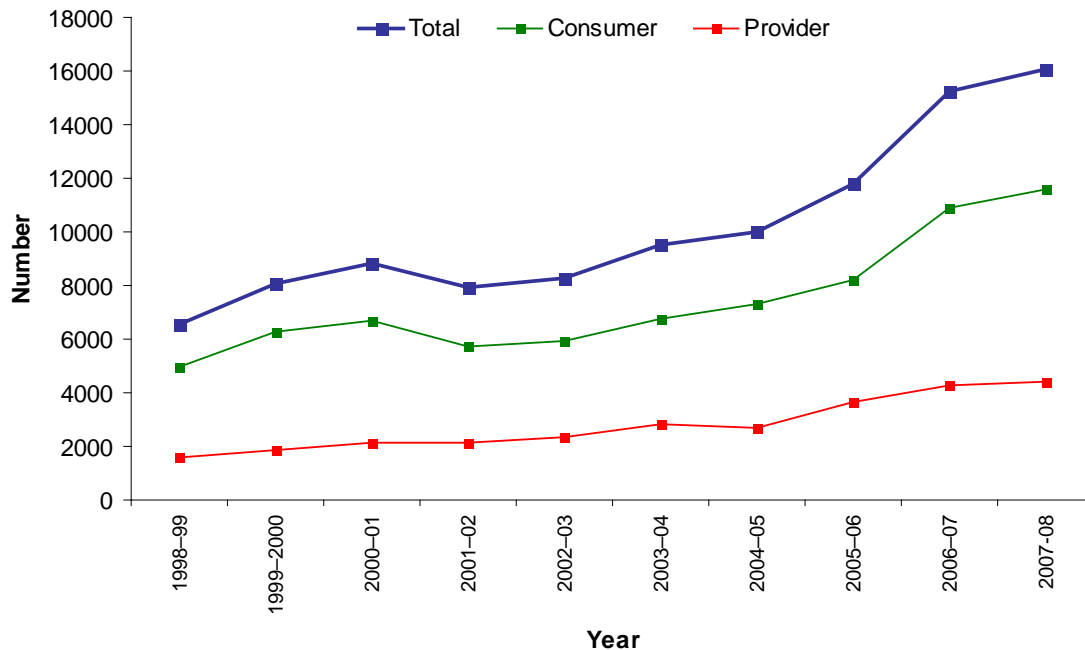

Amphetamine-Type Stimulants (ATS)

National ATS seizures
1998-99 to 2007-08

Amphetamine-Type Stimulants (ATS)

National ATS arrests
1998-99 to 2007-08

Cocaine

National cocaine seizures
1998-99 to 2007-08

Cocaine

National cocaine arrests
1998-99 to 2007-08

Cannabis

National cannabis seizures
1998-99 to 2007-08

Cannabis

National cannabis arrests
1998-99 to 2007-08

Heroin

National heroin seizures
1998-99 to 2007-08

Heroin

National heroin and other opioid arrests
1998-99 to 2007-08

Clandestine Laboratory Detections

Total Clandestine Laboratory Detections

Clandestine Laboratory Detections

Location of Clandestine Laboratory Detections, 2007–08

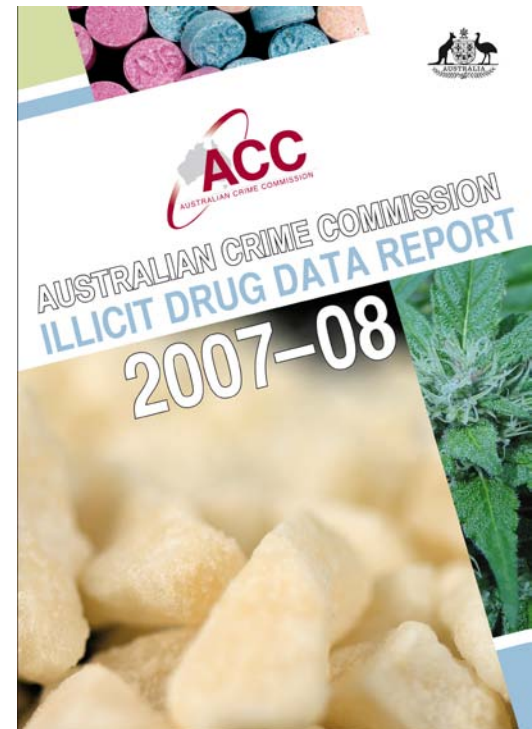

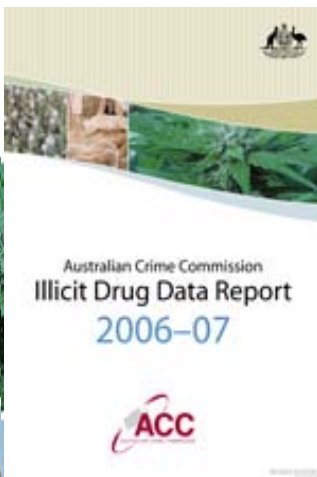

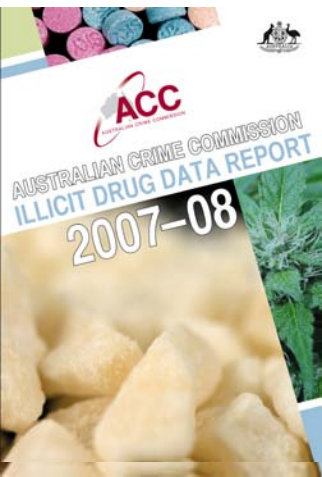

- Residential (80.5%)
- Commercial/Industrial (8.3%)
- Rural (4.3%)
- Vehicle (5.3%)
- Public Place (1.3%)
- Caravan (0.3%)

2007-08 IDDR Snapshot

- The Australian ATS market has expanded considerably over the last decade
- Potential diversification of the Australian cannabis market
- Relatively stable heroin market
- Potential expansion of the Australian cocaine market
- Clandestine laboratory detections in residential areas

The IDDR may be viewed online at:

<http://www.crimecommission.gov.au/publications/iddr/index.htm>

Contact: IDDR@crimecommission.gov.au