Latest additions to the bibliographic database

The following new titles have been added to the growing collection of arson-related literature that can be found in the searchable bibliographic database at www.aic.gov.au/topics/arson. In addition to these titles, the database provides access to major bushfire arson news articles.

