INTRODUCTION

The Australian Institute of Criminology has established a national clearinghouse of criminological information to act as a central agency for the collection, storage, exchange and dissemination of bibliographical data on Australian and Australian-related criminological material.

This information is stored on computer and forms the data base of CINCH (Computerised Information from National Criminological Holdings), the Institute's computerised bibliographic service which provides rapid and comprehensive retrospective searches.

The Information Bulletin of Australian Criminology is published quarterly and is an integral part of this system, publishing in its 'Recent Publications' and 'Current and Recently Completed Research' sections all the new material which continuously updates the CINCH data base. It also contains information regarding past and forthcoming seminars in Australia, bibliographical activities of the J.V. Barry Memorial Library and generally aims to encourage a greater interchange of information between all persons interested in Australian criminology.

The success of the Information Bulletin depends to a large degree on material contributed to it by its readers, and persons who would like a statement of their research to appear or wish to publicise conferences or seminars are invited to complete the appropriate forms supplied with each issue and return them to the address below.

Readers will appreciate that the information contained in the Information Bulletin can only be as accurate and reliable as its source.

The Australian Institute of Criminology hopes that the services provided by CINCH and this Information Bulletin prove valuable to those interested in criminology and looks forward to the continued interest and assistance of its readers.

CURRENT RESEARCH

501 LEGAL AID – TASMANIA

Topic: Comparative Study of Legal Aid Schemes in Tasmania
Auspices: T.C.A.E.
Researchers: Debbie Quarmby and Elizabeth Dean
Address: 2 Powell Street, Sandy Bay, Tas. 7005
Duration of research: 1 August 1977 to December 1977
Outline: To look at the Australian Legal Aid Office and the Law Society Scheme in Tasmania and compare functions and differences. The study will survey professional and salaried lawyers with a view to ascertaining how lawyers see the concept of legal aid, the concept of equality (or inequality) before the law, professional responsibility, etc. We also wish to try and research how much opposition or otherwise there exists towards the A.L.A.O. and the Law Society scheme from professional Lawyers.

514 PROBATION

- Topic: Probation Supervision: A Review and Alternative
- Auspices: Tasmanian College of Advanced Education, Olinda Grove, Mt Nelson
- Researchers: Chris Wilkie and Ron Snashall
- Address: 16 Lumeah Avenue, Lenah Valley. Tas. 7008
- Funding: Attorney-General's Department, Tasmania
- Outline: Considerable literature exists which relates to probation and parole systems as they exist in the majority of 'Western' industrialised countries. However, little specific information is available concerning probation in Australia and, in particular, in Tasmania. This paper looks at the historical development of probation in some of the major countries of the 'Western' World and offers a specific and critical review of the major aspect of the Tasmanian Probation and Parole Service, as seen by two officers of that Service. Following this review an alternative proposal for probation supervision based on a team work concept, where groups of officers work together in a decentralised office, is put forward.

Finally, a comparison of the proposed team work alternative with the present system is made on the basis of a cost benefit analysis and the outcome of work input and concludes 'that team work as a concept is designed to make probation orders more beneficial to the offending individual, correctional agency staff and the judiciary of the State'.
