Introduction

The Australian Institute of Criminology has established a national clearinghouse of criminological information to act as a central agency for the collection, storage, exchange and dissemination of bibliographical data on Australian and Australian-related criminological material.

This information is stored on computer and forms the data base of CINCH (Computerised Information from National Criminological Holdings), the Institute's computerised bibliographic service which provides rapid and comprehensive retrospective searches.

The Information Bulletin of Australian Criminology is published quarterly and is an integral part of this system, publishing in its 'Recent Publications' and 'Current and Recently Completed Research' sections all the new material which continuously updates the CINCH data base. It also contains information regarding past and forthcoming seminars in Australia, bibliographical activities of the J.V. Barry Memorial Library and generally aims to encourage a greater interchange of information between all persons interested in Australian criminology.

The success of the Information Bulletin depends to a large degree on material contributed to it by its readers, and persons who would like a statement of their research to appear or wish to publicise conferences or seminars are invited to complete the appropriate forms supplied with each issue and return them to the address below.

Readers will appreciate that the information contained in the Information Bulletin can only be as accurate and reliable as its source.

The Australian Institute of Criminology hopes that the services provided by CINCH and this Information Bulletin prove valuable to those interested in criminology and looks forward to the continued interest and assistance of its readers.

Parliamentary Questions and Debates

The Editorial Committee wishes to expand this section by the coverage of parliamentary questions and debates in New South Wales, South Australia, Western Australia, Queensland and the Northern Territory.

Staff shortages make it impossible for the Committee to undertake this work itself.

We would therefore be interested in hearing from Information Bulletin readers in any of the above jurisdictions who have access to the Hansards and would be willing to provide us with the relevant material each quarter.

Offers of assistance should be sent to: The Editorial Committee, Information Bulletin of Australian Criminology, P.O. Box 28, Woden, A.C.T. 2606.

Current Research

694 MIGRANT CRIME

Topic: Migrant Crime
Researcher: Ronald Francis
Address: Caulfield Institute of Technology, Melbourne
Duration of research: Continuing
Funding: Various
Outline: An examination of migrant crime at all levels of the judicial process and the crime relationship in relationship to other social deviance indicators.

Recently Completed Research

695 PROBATION

Topic: Probation as an Option for Sentencing
(Research Paper no. 8)

Auspices: Australian Law Reform Commission

Researcher: Jocelyne A. Scutt

Address: Australian Institute of Criminology, P.O. Box 28, Woden, A.C.T. 2606

Funding: Australian Institute of Criminology

Outline: The operation of recognizances and probation orders ('bonds' with and without supervision) as alternatives to imprisonment in various jurisdictions in Australia and abroad (particularly Canada and the United Kingdom, as well as the United States) is discussed and criticised. Legal and criminological aspects of the dispositions are referred to and analysed in depth. Mention is made of suspended sentences and their operation in South Australia. The 'split sentence' or 'judicial parole' is dealt with in one section of the report. Reforms are suggested both in terms of the application of the dispositions (particularly supervision orders – 'probation') and as to the legal dimensions of such dispositions, for adoption by Governments.

Notices

To enable a freer exchange of information between persons in the criminal justice system and related areas, the Editorial Committee has decided to make space available to the Bulletin's readers. It is contemplated that this space will be used for such things as notices of meetings, requests of other readers for information and requests for copies of books, journals and other materials. This service will be free. Notices which would be more appropriately listed in the commercial press will thus not be accepted. We trust that readers will find this service useful.
