Introduction

The Information Bulletin of Australian Criminology is published quarterly. It contains information regarding current and recently completed research, past and forthcoming seminars in Australia, and bibliographical activities of the J.V. Barry Memorial Library. It also generally aims to encourage a greater exchange of information between all persons interested in Australian criminology. Papers from published conferences and chapters in monographs will be indexed.

The success of the Information Bulletin depends to a large degree on material contributed to it by its readers, and persons who would like a statement of their research to appear or wish to publicise conferences or seminars are invited to complete the appropriate forms supplied with each issue and return them to the address below.

The Australian Institute of Criminology hopes that the services provided by this publication prove valuable to those interested in criminology and looks forward to the continued interest and assistance of its readers.

Topic: Cross-examination practice and procedure: an Australian perspective.

Researcher: James Lindsay Glissan

Address: Public Defender's Chambers
3rd Floor Selborne Chambers
174 Phillip Street, Sydney

Outline: The first part of the book is a schematic outline of the stages of a trial in which techniques of practice and rules of conduct are considered. It isolates techniques which will facilitate the smooth running of a trial and which are tactically sound. The second part reprints Mr Justice Barry's 1941 treatise on The Ethics of Advocacy and some samples of notable cross-examinations of the last hundred years or so. The book is contemporary in that it touches on the recently concluded Ananda Marga Judicial Inquiry in which the author appeared.
