

Contents

1 The Criminal Event

- Australian system of justice 2
- What is crime? 2
- Other common crimes 2
- How serious are various types of crimes? 4
- Main sources of national crime statistics 5
- How much crime is there? 6
- What are the trends in crime? 6
- Where do most crimes occur? 8
- What is the involvement of weapons in crime? 9

2 The Victim

- Identifying the victims - Crime Victims Survey 12
- The relationship between victims and offenders 15
- How does crime affect its victims? 16
- Non-reporting of crimes to police 18
- Compensation available for the victims of crime 19

3 The Offender

- Who commits crime and why? 24
- Who is the typical offender? 24
- What is the role of youth in crime? 25
- Career criminals 27
- How many offenders are female? 27
- Characteristics of proven offenders 28

4 The Response to Crime

- An overview 32
- Entry into the criminal justice system 34
- The relationship between police strength and crime 35
- The arrest process 35
- The crime clearance rate 36
- Prosecution and adjudication 37

5 Sentencing and Punishment

- Objectives of sentencing 42
- Current sentencing alternatives 43
- The main characteristics of people under supervision 46
- How is time served in prison determined? 48
- Overcrowding in Australian prison systems 49
- What are the trends in correctional populations? 50
- The assessment of post-correctional performance 51
- Juvenile offenders 51

6 The Cost of Justice

- How much does government spend on justice? 54
- State government responsibility for justice 54
- Commonwealth government responsibilities 56
- How does the government pay for the cost of the justice system? 56
- Personnel costs 56
- What do prisons and correctional programs cost? 57
- What factors are related to state government per capita spending? 59

References and Sources of Data 61

List of Tables

Table 1.1	Characteristics of common serious crimes	3
Table 1.2	A comparison of Selected Crime Statistics and Crime Victim Survey Statistics	6
Table 1.3	Victimisations, 1983	6
Table 1.4	Selected crimes reported to the police, 1987	6
Table 1.5	Crimes and crime rates, 1983	9
Table 1.6	Location and types of crime, 1983	9
Table 1.7	Incidents by weapon used and whether or not incident became known to the police, 1987	9
Table 1.8	Number and percentage of murders reported to the police by weapon used, 1987	10
Table 1.9	Number of robberies reported to the police by weapons used, 1986-87	10
Table 2.1	Victimisation rates for crimes of violence, 1983	12
Table 2.2	Victimisation rates for crimes of violence by type of crime, 1983	13
Table 2.3	Victimisation rates for household crimes, 1983	14
Table 2.4	Incidence rates for various life events, 1981-83	14
Table 2.5	Relationship between victims and offenders, 1983	15
Table 2.6	Homicide victims, New South Wales	16
Table 2.7	Income group and victimisation for theft, 1983	17
Table 2.8	Main reasons for not reporting as a percentage of all incidents	19
Table 2.9	Main reasons for reporting thefts, 1983	19
Table 2.10	Victim compensation	21
Table 3.1	The characteristics of offenders, 1986	25
Table 3.2	The characteristics of arrestees, 1985-86	25
Table 3.3	Percentage of females in arrests, 1986	27
Table 4.1	Powers of law enforcers	33
Table 4.2	Arrests by police 1985-86	36
Table 4.3	Percentage of reported crimes cleared by arrest, 1985-86	36
Table 4.4	Magistrate court appearances: summarily convicted and committals for sentence or trial, Queensland, 1987-88	38
Table 4.5	Time taken in processing charges at magistrates' courts, New South Wales, 1987	38
Table 4.6	Higher courts, appearances and convictions, Queensland, 1987-88	38
Table 4.7	Age of criminal responsibility and upper age limit of juveniles	39
Table 4.8	Children's courts, appearances, offences proven and committals, Queensland, 1987-88	39
Table 5.1	Most commonly selected sentence options for selected offences - survey of public opinion, 1987	42
Table 5.2	Charges heard during 1984-85: principal outcomes of offences proven, by level of court and offence	44
Table 5.3	Number of charges proved, by offence type and type of penalty (in thousands)	45
Table 5.4	Non-parole periods as percentage of maximum terms, Victoria	45
Table 5.5	Actual time served in prison by sentenced offenders	46
Table 5.6	Numbers of persons under supervision and detention orders, by jurisdiction	47
Table 5.7	Most serious offences for which serving orders	47
Table 5.8	Age distributions of persons serving orders	47
Table 5.9	Characteristics of correctional populations	48
Table 5.10	Prison accommodation and occupancy in Australia, 1987	49
Table 5.11	The break-up of prisoners by security level, sex and jurisdiction, 1986	49
Table 5.12	Children's Courts statistics: dispositions by offence type, 1984-85	52
Table 5.13	Number and rates of detainees aged 10-17 in juvenile corrective institutions at 30 June 1986	52
Table 6.1	Commonwealth/state/local government/proportion of total expenditure, 1984-85	54
Table 6.2	State government spending per capita in constant 1984-85 dollars	55
Table 6.3	Average annual cost per prisoner	57
Table 6.4	Average annual cost per capita of persons under non-custodial supervision orders	58
Table 6.5	Net per capita expenditure 1984-85 - state governments	59
Table 6.6	Factors influencing the per capita expenditure on justice	60

List of Figures

Figure 1.1	Seriousness of selected offences as perceived by Australians, by sex of respondent, 1986	4	Figure 3.8	Arrest rate per 100,000 population—males	28
Figure 1.2	Property crime outnumbered violent crimes by 21 to 1	7	Figure 3.9	Arrest rate per 100,000 population—females	28
Figure 1.3	Selected crime statistics show increases in most crimes—1	7	Figure 3.10	Drug offences reported to police and cleared, 1986-87	29
Figure 1.4	Selected crime statistics show increases in most crimes—2	7	Figure 3.11	Drug offences by age of offenders	29
Figure 1.5	Homicide rates per 100,000 population	8	Figure 4.1	Reported rate and arrest rate of property crime	34
Figure 1.6	Crime rates for violent offences 1973-74 to 1986-87	8	Figure 4.2	Reported rate and arrest rate of violent crime	34
Figure 1.7	Crime rates for property offences 1973-74 to 1986-87	8	Figure 4.3	Number of police officers per 1,000 residents, 1985-86	35
Figure 1.8	Homicide rates 1974-86	9	Figure 4.4	Number of police officers per 1,000 km ²	35
Figure 1.9	Motor vehicle theft rates 1973-74 to 1986-87	9	Figure 4.5	Proportion of violent and property offences cleared, Australia 1973-74 to 1986-87	37
Figure 2.1	Victimisation rates for crimes of violence by age	13	Figure 4.6	Time taken in processing charges, New South Wales, 1987	38
Figure 2.2	Victimisation rates for household crimes by state	14	Figure 5.1	Sentences passed in Australian courts, by offence type	44
Figure 2.3	Relationship between victims and offenders	16	Figure 5.2	Comparative rates of adult detention and supervision by jurisdiction	46
Figure 2.4	Offender victim relationship in homicide by sex of victim, New South Wales, 1968-86	16	Figure 5.3	Over-representation of Aborigines in prison populations in all jurisdictions	48
Figure 2.5	Percentage of crimes reported to police by type of crime	18	Figure 5.4	Average number of prisoners in Australian prisons, May 1976-April 1989	50
Figure 2.6	Whether offender known to victim: main reason for reporting/not reporting to police	18	Figure 5.5	Prisoner rates per 100,000 population	50
Figure 2.7	Percentage not reported to police, by reason for not reporting	19	Figure 5.6	Rates of imprisonment by age	51
Figure 2.8	Percentage of crimes most likely to be reported to the police	20	Figure 6.1	Per capita expenditure on various government functions	54
Figure 3.1	Mix of offences for which persons are arrested, convicted and imprisoned	25	Figure 6.2	Percentage growth in spending 1964-65 to 1984-85; health at constant 1984-85 dollar	55
Figure 3.2	Rate of arrest by age of offender	26	Figure 6.3	Relative cost of prison and non-custodial supervision	58
Figure 3.3	The gradual increase of youth arrest rates	26
Figure 3.4	Detention status - girls, 1981-86	26
Figure 3.5	Detention status - boys, 1981-86	26
Figure 3.6	Percentage of male and female arrestees by type of crime	27
Figure 3.7	Women as proportion of total prisoners	27			